CHAPTER I.

Of the Jurisdiction of the State and Places Ceded to the United States.

• (1) Section 1. Jurisdiction of the State of South Carolina.—The sovereignty and jurisdiction of this State extends to all places within its bounds, which are hereby declared to be as follows:

The northern line, beginning at a point on the seashore, about a mile and a quarter east of the mouth of Little River, runs in a northwest direction, sixty-four and one-half miles, to a point two miles northwest of one of the branches of Little Pee Dee River; thence, in the same direction, twenty-two miles, to a stake in a meadow; thence, in a direction due west, a distance of sixty-two miles, to a point where the said line intersects the Charleston Road (at sixty-one miles) near the Waxhaw Creek; thence along the line extending from this point to the Tryon Mountain; thence from a stone set up and marked "S. C. and N. C., September 15th, 1815," running west four miles and ninety poles, to a stone marked "S. C. and N. C.;" thence south, twenty-five degrees west, one hundred and eighteen poles, to a chestnut on the top of the Ridge dividing the waters of the North Fork of Pacolet River from the waters of the North Fork of the Saluda River; thence along the various courses of the said Ridge (agreeably to the plat and survey of the Commissioners and Surveyors accompanying their report, dated 2d November, 1915), to the Ridge that divides the Saluda waters from those of Green River; thence along the various courses of the said Ridge, agreeably to the said plat and survey, to a stone set up where the said Ridge joins the Ridge which divides the eastern from the western waters, and which stone is marked "S. C. and N. C., September 28th, A. D. 1815;"

thence along the various courses of the said Ridge, agreeably to the said plat and survey, to a stone set up on that part of it which is intersected by the Cherokee boundary line, run in the year 1797, and which stone is marked "S. C. and N. C., 1813;" and from the said last mentioned stone, on the top of the said Ridge, at the point of intersection aforesaid, a direct line, south, sixty-eight and one-fourth degrees west, twenty miles and eleven poles, to the thirty-fifth degree of north latitude, at the rock in the east bank of Chatooga River, marked "Latitude thirty-five degrees, A. D. 1813;" which line, from the termination of the line of 1772 to the Chatooga River, is, in all, a distance of twenty-four miles and one hundred and eighty-nine poles.

From the State of Georgia, South Carolina is divided by the Savannah River, from its entrance into the ocean to the confluence of the Tugaloo and Seneca Rivers; thence by the Tugaloo River to the confluence of the Tugaloo and Chatooga Rivers; thence by the Chatooga River to the North Carolina line aforesaid, in the thirty-fifth degree of north latitude, the line being low-water mark at the southern shore of the most northern stream of said rivers where the middle of the rivers is broken by islands; and middle thread of the stream where the rivers flow in one stream or volume.

On the east, the State is bounded by the Atlantic Ocean, from the mouth of the Savannah River to the northern boundary, near the mouth of Little River, including all the islands.

Each box shall be provided with a sufficient lock, and shall be publicly opened and inspected, to show that it is empty and secure, and locked just before the opening of the poll. The keys shall be returned to the Managers, and the box shall not be opened during the election. Each box shall be labeled in plain and distinct Roman letters, with the office or officers voted for, and the Managers, on the demand of the voter, shall be required to read to him the names on the boxes. ately proceed publicly to open the ballot box and count the ballots therein, and continue such count, without adjournment or interruption, until the same is completed, and make such statement of the result thereof, and sign the same as the nature of the election shall require. No ballot shall be counted upon which there shall appear the name of an office or the name of a person in connection with an office other than that for which the box in which such ballot is found shall be designated and labeled. If, in counting, two or more like ballots shall be found folded together compactly, only one shall be counted; the other must be destroyed; but if they bear different names, all must be destroyed and none counted. If more ballots shall be found on opening the box than there are names on the poll list, all the ballots shall be returned to the box and thoroughly mixed together, and one of the Managers, or the Clerk, shall, without seeing the ballots, draw therefrom and immediately destroy as many ballots as there are in excess of the number of names on the poll list. Within three days thereafter the Chairman of the Board of Managers, or one of them, to be designated in writing by the Board, shall deliver to the Commissioners of Election the poll list, the boxes containing the ballots and a written statement of the result of the election in his precinct.

(294) § 10. County Committee—How Composed—Officers—Vacancy—Meeting—Duties.—The clubs in each county shall be held together and operate under the control of a County Committee, which shall consist of one member from each club, to be elected by the respective clubs. The Committee, when elected, shall appoint its own officers (except the Chairman, who shall be elected by the County Convention), who shall not necessarily be members of said Committee, but a vacancy in the membership of the Committee shall be filled by the club, through the loss of whose member by death, resignation or otherwise the vacancy occurs: Provided, That in case the office of Chairman of the County Committee shall become vacant by death, resignation or otherwise, the Committee shall have power to fill the vacancy by electing a Chairman to serve until the organization of the next regular County Convention: And provided, further, That any officer so elected who is not a member of the Committee shall not be entitled to vote on any question except the Chairman, and then only in case of a tie vote. The tenure of office of the Committee shall be until the first Monday in May in each election year.

The County Committee shall meet on or before the first Monday in August of each election year and designate a polling place for each club in its own club district and appoint the Managers for the primaries. Three Managers and a Clerk shall be appointed for each voting place and their names published in one or more county papers at least two weeks before the election.

1915, XXIX, 170.

(295) § 11. Election on Last Tuesday in August—Arrangements of Voting Place—Opening and Closing Polls—Duty of Managers—Ballot Boxes—Oaths—Tickets—Ballots in Wrong Box—Excessive Ballots—Challenges.—For the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and all other State officers, including Solicitors in the respective Circuits, United States Senator and Congressmen in their respective districts, and all county officers, except Masters, Magistrates and Supervisors of Registration, a direct primary election shall be held on the last Tuesday in August of each election year, and a second and third primary each two weeks successively thereafter if necessary: Provided, That the County Committee of any county shall be at liberty to order a primary election for Masters and Magistrates, but not for members of the County Board of Control of the dispensaries, nor for county dispensers.

The Managers at each voting place shall arrange the table, desk or other place upon which the ballot boxes shall be placed, so that there shall be no crowding or confusion immediately around the boxes, and suitable means shall be provided to enable each voter to approach the boxes and deposit his ballot without interference or hindrance, and the right of each person regularly enrolled to vote and the secrecy of the ballot shall be preserved at all times.

The Managers shall open the polls at 8 o'clock a. m., and shall close them at 4 o'clock p. m.: Provided, That in the cities of Charleston and Columbia the polls shall open at 8 o'clock a. m., and close at 6 o'clock p. m. The Managers shall then proceed publicly to count the votes. After tabulating the result, the Managers shall certify the same and forward the ballot box, containing the ballots, poll list and all other papers, including the club roll, relating to such election, by one of their number to the Chairman of the County Committee within 36 hours after the close of the polls.

Each County Committee shall furnish the Managers at each voting precinct two ballot boxes, one for State officers and United States Senator and one for county officers, Congressmen and Solicitors. The Managers, before opening the polls, shall take and sign the following oath: "We do solemnly swear that we will conduct this election according to law and the rules of the party, and will allow no person to vote whose name is not regularly enrolled in this club, and we will not assist any voter to prepare his ballot and will not advise any voter as to how he should vote at this election." The Managers shall direct each voter, if requested, to the proper box for his ticket, but the boxes in all cases shall be marked in a suitable manner so as to designate in which box the respective tickets shall be placed.

The Managers at each box at the primary shall require every voter to take the following oath and pledge, viz.: "I do solemnly swear that I am a resident of this club district and am duly qualified to vote at this election —, and that I have not voted before at this election."

Each voter shall deposit in the appropriate box a ballot on which shall be printed the names of the candidates for the offices to be filled, with the titles of the respective offices. The tickets shall be furnished by the State Committee for all except county officers, Congressmen and Solicitors, for which the County Committee shall furnish the tickets. Each ticket shall contain the names of all candidates for the respective offices and no other tickets shall be used. One ticket shall contain the names of all persons running for State offices and United States Senator. The other ticket shall contain the names of all persons running for members of the General Assembly, county officers, Congressmen and Solicitors. No vote for the House of Representatives, nor for County Commissioners, shall be counted unless it contains as many names as the county is entitled to Representatives and to County Commissioners, respectively.

Any ballot deposited in the wrong box shall not be counted.

That in case the Managers find more ballots in the ballot box than names on the poll list, the Managers shall draw out the excess ballots and destroy them.

At any election when the right of a person to vote is challenged, the Managers shall place the vote so challenged in an envelope and indorse thereon the name of the voter and that of the challenger, and the person so challenged shall be allowed to vote, and the challenged votes shall be kept separate and apart and not counted, but turned over to the County Committee, who shall at its first meeting thereafter hear all objections to such votes, and where no person appears to sustain an objection made at the polls the ballot shall be removed from the envelope and mingled with the regular ballot and counted, but where the challengers appear, or produce witnesses in support of the challenge, the Committee shall proceed to hear and determine the question, and in all instances the voter shall have the right of appealing to the State Committee.

Tabulation of Returns—Result of Primary—State Committee Protests and Contests—Appeals—Majority Vote.—The County Committees shall assemble at their respective court houses on the morning of the second day after the election on or before 12 o'clock noon to tabulate the returns and declare the results of the primary, so far as the same relates to members of the General Assembly and county officers, and shall forward immediately to the Chairman of the State Committee at Columbia, S. C., the result of the election in their respective counties for United States Senator, State officers, Congressmen and Solicitors. The State Committee shall proceed to canvass the vote and declare the result.

The protests and contests for county officers and members of the General Assembly shall be filed within two days after the day of the declaration by the County Committee of the result of the election with the Chairman of the County Committee, and said County Committee shall hear and determine the same at its first meeting thereafter, which shall be held within five days after said protest or contest is filed. The State Committee shall meet on the Tuesday after each primary or at such other time as may be designated by the Chairman, to hear and decide protests and contests as to United States Senators, State officers, Congressmen and Solicitors: Provided, That no member of either the County Committee or State Committee shall act in any contest wherein his candidacy is acted on. The protests and contests for all officers, except county officers and members of the General Assembly, shall be filed within five days after the election with the Chairman of the State Committee.

The State Committee shall also review, on appeal, the decision of the County Committee as to county officers, and members of the General Assembly, and its action shall be final.

No candidate shall be declared nominated in a primary election unless he receives a majority of the votes cast for the office for which he was a candidate.

The question of a majority vote shall be determined by the number of votes cast for any particular office, and not by the whole number of votes cast in the primary.

1915, XXIX, 172.

(297) § 13. Second Primary.—A second primary, when necessary, shall be held two weeks after the first and shall be subject to the rules governing the first primary. At said second primary the two highest candidates alone shall run for any one office, but if there are two or more vacancies for any particular office, then the number of candidates shall be double the number of vacancies to be filled.

In the event of a tie between two candidates in the second primary, the County Chairman, if it is a county office, and the State Chairman, if it is for United States Senator, State officers, Congressmen or Solicitors, shall order the third primary.

Other primaries, if necessary, shall be ordered by the County Chairman, if it is a county office, and the State Chairman, if it is for United States Senator, State officers, Congressmen or Solicitors.

That the provisions of this Act shall not be construed to repeal an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the holding of all primary elections and the organization of clubs in cities containing forty thousand inhabitants, or more," and also known as Senate Bill No. 37, passed at regular session of 1915.

1915, XXIX, 174.

from the time of its commencement to the first day of January next ensuing; and upon making satisfactory proof to said Auditor that such capital or property has been regularly listed for taxation in some other county in this State, said Auditor shall file report and proofs in his office, and give to the party a certificate that he or they have complied with the provisions of this Section and are not liable to taxation in his county on such capital or property for the then current fiscal year. But if he or they shall not satisfactorily prove that such capital or property has been previously listed for taxation in some county of this State, said County Auditor shall charge him or them on his duplicate with such proportion of all taxes levied on others upon similar capital or property, at the place of the business, as the time from the commencement of the business to the ensuing first day of January bears to one year.

(429) § 4. Duty of County Auditors With Respect to Persons With Property Unlisted.—It shall be the duty of each County Auditor to ascertain the names of all persons commencing any business in his county after the first day of January, annually, whose capital or property employed in such business was not listed for taxation in his county for the then current fiscal year.

Civ. '12, § 377; Civ. '02, § 335; G. S. 217; R. S. 268; 1882, XVII, 1005.

(430) § 5. Penalty Where Capital or Property Employed is Not Listed.—If any person, company, or corporation, shall commence any business in any county of this State after the first day of January in any year, the capital or property employed in which shall not have been previously listed for taxation in said county, and shall not, within thirty days thereafter, make such report to the Auditor of said county as is required in Section 3 of this Article, he or they shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, which shall be collected, by civil action, in the name of the County Commissioners, and paid into the County Treasury for the exclusive benefit of the county. And process in such case may issue out of the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which such business was commenced, directed to the proper officer, and be served in any county of this State.

How Property Valued.—All property shall be valued for taxation at its true value in money, which, in all cases not otherwise specially provided for by law, shall be held to be as follows, to wit: For personal property, the usual selling price on the usual terms of similar property at administrators' or executors' sales, at the place where the return is made; and for real property, the usual selling price on the usual terms of similar property at sales for partition under the order of the court, at the place where the return is to be made. If there is no usual selling price, then at what is honestly believed could be obtained for the same at a fair sale under the conditions before mentioned. It shall be the duty of each owner of lands, and of any new structures thereon which shall not have been appraised for taxation, to list the same for taxation with the County

Civ. '12, § 379; Civ. '02, § 337; G. S. 219; R. S. 270; 1882, XVII, 1006.

Railroad property was assessed by State Board of Equalization for railroads at 80 per cent. of its real value, under provision of this section that all property should be valued "at its true value in money," while all other property in State was assessed by county boards of assessment at from 50 to 60 per cent. of the real value. Held, in view of general mode of assessing property for taxation, upon application of receiver for instructions, that there was no such evidence of intention on part of board of equalization to violate constitutional provision (art. 9, § 1) in relation to equality of taxation, and design to put burden of tax alone on railroads, as would warrant interference of court. Chamberlain v. Walter, 60 Fed. 738, 794.

(432) § 7. Personal Property—How Valued—What Deemed Personal Property.—The following articles of personal property shall be valued for taxation, as follows, to wit: Money, bank bills, and other bills lawfully circulating as money, at the par value thereof; credits, at the amount payable on the face of the contract, instrument, or account, unless the principal be payable at a future time without interest; then, at the sum payable, less the lawful interest thereon, for any term of credit not exceeding one year; contracts for the delivery of specific articles, at the usual selling price of such articles, at the time of listing; leasehold estates held for any definite term, at the yearly value thereof to the lessee; annuities, at the yearly value thereof to the owner at the time of listing. All leasehold estates, held on perpetual lease, or for a term certain, renewable forever at the option of the lessee, shall be valued at the full price of the land, and continued to be taxed at such value to the end of the term. When the fee of the soil in any tract or lot of land is in one person, and right to any minerals therein or structures thereon in another, the proceeds of the minerals and the said structures shall be valued and taxed as personal property, to the owners thereof, respectively.

The Auditor's jurisdiction is special, and the fact giving it must affirmatively appear, cannot be presumed. State v. Cromer, 35 S. C. 213, 14 S. E. 493. It does not extend to cases regularly passed upon and determined by the tax boards. State v. Cromer, 35 S. C. 213, 14 S. E. 493; State v. Covington, 35 S. C. 245, 14 S. E. 499. Penalty in Case it Appear That Return Has Been Evaded or Falsified.—The County Auditor, when he shall deem it necessary, may adjourn the examination provided for in the preceding Section, from time to time; and if he shall find that the party has failed to make any return for taxation, or intentionally made a false return, or intentionally returned his or their property for taxation at less than its fair cash value, he shall determine what amount should have been returned by the party, and add fifty per cent. thereto as penalty, and charge the same, with said penalty, against the party on the duplicate, with the taxes of the current year, and the taxes of each preceding year it may have escaped taxation, with twenty per cent. and penalties upon such taxes of preceding years; but if he shall find the party committed a merely unintentional mistake in any return made, he shall add such amount as he may deem just to such return, and charge the party with the simple taxes thereon.

Civ. '12, § 400; Civ. '02, § 359; G. S. 241; R. S. 292; 1882, XVII, 1014.

"Unintentional mistake" does not mean error of judgment; does not apply where property is returned and passed by the tax boards at a valuation less than others might estimate it. State v. Boyd, 35 S. C. 233, 14 S. E. 496.

(453) § 21. How Costs of Examination to Be Settled.—If upon the examination provided for in Section 19 of this Article, the return made to or by the Auditor shall be found to be correct, the expenses of the examination shall be paid by the County Auditor, out of the county treasury; but if it shall be found that the return, as made, was intentionally false, or that no return was made, the Auditor shall pay the expenses of the examination out of the county treasury and charge the same to the party on the duplicate, in addition to the penalty provided for such cases; and such amount shall be collected, with the taxes of the party, to reimburse the treasury of the county for the expenses paid as aforesaid. But if the return made was unintentionally erroneous, said Auditor shall pay the witness' fees and costs of serving the notice out of the county treasury, charge the same on duplicate to the party, and the same shall be collected and paid into the county treasury, as aforesaid.

That the report shall show the amount of school funds on hand for each district and the amount, if any, unapportioned and the amount of road fund for each township. That it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer of Berkeley to make a monthly report to the County Board of Commissioners of the said county of all moneys received or paid out by him and all moneys on hand, said report to be made on the last day of each and every month in conformity with the report made by the said County Treasurer to the Comptroller General.

The interest, when collected, shall be added to the fund or funds and paid out as other funds of the same sort are paid.

The Treasurer may require of the bank in which such fund or funds are deposited at interest a depositor's guaranty bond for the protection of the fund or funds, the same to be paid for out of the fund for which such guaranty is provided.

Taft*, 20 S. C. 555. This section gives the mortgagee a legal remedy where the mortgagor fails to pay the taxes; hence equity will not interfere where the security is sufficient. Nathan v. Steinmeyer, 57 S. C. 386, 35 S. E. 733.

(507) § 14. Comptroller General May Remit Penalties in Certain Cases.—In all cases where the penalty for nonpayment of taxes has attached to property held by assignees in bankruptcy and which could not be sold before the expiration of the time fixed by law for the payment of taxes, and in all cases where sales of property for the settlements of estates, for partition, for the foreclosure of mortgages, for the marshaling of assets, or for other purposes, ordered by any court in this State, have not been made in season for the payment of taxes due thereon, the Comptroller General, upon proper evidence thereof, may remit the penalties and costs which by law attach for nonpayment of taxes, and may also grant a stay of the collection of taxes upon such property until such time as the same shall be sold. And in all cases where such property held by assignees in bankruptcy, or property ordered by any court in this State to be sold for any of the purposes above mentioned, cannot be sold in time for the payment of the taxes due or to become due thereon, the Comptroller General, upon proper evidence thereof, may authorize the collection of the taxes without costs and penalties and may stay the collection thereof until such time as the said sales shall be made: Provided, The stay of collection of taxes under this Section shall be only upon the written order of the Comptroller General, made in each case in duplicate, the original order to be issued to the County Treasurer and permanently filed in his office and the duplicate order to be filed in the Comptroller General's office, and shall state the title of the case and the order of sale by the court and the particular property upon which the collection of taxes is stayed.

(509) § 16. Chattel Tax May Be Recovered by Distress or Suit.—If any chattel tax shall be unpaid at the time fixed for the payment thereof by this Chapter, or returned delinquent, as authorized by this Chapter, the County Treasurer may not only distrain property for the payment thereof, but may recover the same, with the penalties thereon, by action at law, proceedings in attachment, or other means authorized by law to be used by private individuals in the collection of debts, which action or other proceedings shall be prosecuted in the name of such Treasurer; and if he shall die or go out of office before the termination of such action or proceeding, or the final collection of the money, or any judgment or order therein, his successor or successors may, from time to time, be substituted as plaintiff therein.

Steps to Be Taken When Owner of Chattel Resides in Another County.—If, after the return of any chattel tax by any County Treasurer as delinquent, the County Treasurer shall know or be informed that the party against whom the same is charged resides in some other county in this State, or has property or debts due him therein, it shall be his duty to make out and forward to the Treasurer of such other county a certified statement of the name of the party against whom such taxes are charged, of the value of the property on which such taxes were levied, the amount of the taxes and penalties assessed thereon and that the same are delinquent, to the aggregate of which taxes and penalties he shall add twenty-five per cent. as collection fees, upon the receipt of which certificate it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of such other county to collect such delinquent taxes and penalties, with the twenty-five per cent. collection fees as aforesaid, for which purpose he shall have all the rights, powers and remedies conferred upon the Treasurer of the county in which such taxes were assessed, and be allowed the same fees for distraint and sale of property as if said taxes had been levied in his own county, and, upon collection made, may retain one-half of said twenty-five per cent. collection fees, and shall transmit the balance collected by him to the Treasurer of the county from whom he received such certified statement by mail. But if the Treasurer to whom any such statement is sent cannot collect the amount therein named, or any part thereof, he shall return the same, so endorsed, with reasons for such noncollection.

(517) § 7. Recovery Against County Treasurer Not to Exceed Value of Property.—In any action or proceeding against any County Treasurer in this State, for the purpose of recovering any property or money alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed and collected as taxes, assessments, or penalties, unless the party bringing such action or proceeding shall make it appear that a notice in writing of the claim on which such suit may be brought was given to said Treasurer in pursuance of Section 2 of this Article, and unless it shall be made to appear that said Treasurer has proceeded contrary to the provisions of this Chapter, the amount recovered in such suit shall not exceed the value of the property or money aforesaid.

(519) § 9. Levy and Collection of Tax to Pay Township Bonds Aiding Railroad Prohibited.—No Board of Township Commissioners nor County Board of Commissioners, nor any other officer or officers, shall assess or levy, and no County Treasurer nor other officer or officers shall collect, any tax for the payment of township bonds, or the coupons thereof, or judgments entered up thereon, issued in the aid of a railroad: Provided, This Section shall not apply to those bonds issued in the aid of railroads that have been completed and finished through such townships as have issued such bonds, nor until such road shall have been accepted by the Railroad Commissioners: Provided, further, That the provisions of this Section shall not apply to Newberry County, or any part thereof, nor to bonds issued in aid of the Pickens Railroad Company by certain townships in Pickens County.

Civ. '12, § 468; Civ. '02, § 420; 1899, XXIII, 78.

This section seems to repeal 18 Stat. 366, 19 Stat. 38, 19 Stat. 240, 20 Stat. 12.

For discussion of latter statutes, see following cases: Rice v. Sheasley, 71 S. C. 161, 369, 50 S. E. 868; Massachusetts & S. Const. Co. v. Town of Cherokee, 42 Fed. 750, 752; *Massachusetts & S. Acts 22 St. at Large, p. 534 (see § 292); 23 St. at Large, p. 78, were passed to obstruct payment of bonds issued in aid of Greenville & Port Royal Railroad, and would seem to be in conflict with § 34, Art. 3, S. C. Constitution, which forbids special legislation. Hicks v. Cleveland, 106 Fed. 459, 464.

This section is void under U. S. Const., as impairing obligation of contracts as against innocent bondholders who have acquired rights under 19 Stat. 237, 240, and Federal Court will issue mandamus to enforce judgment rendered on such bonds. Hicks v. Cleveland, 106 Fed. Rep. 459, 464; Padgett v. Post, 106 Fed. Rep. 600, 602, 7 Mun. Corp. Cas. 873. See, also, Graham v. Folsom, 200 U. S. 248, 252, 50 L. Ed. 464.

The fact that corporate existence of township which had issued bonds in aid of railroad under 19 Stat. 239, 20 Stat. 12, was destroyed and township itself was included in another county is not ineffectual to impair obligation of contract and court will direct levy and collection of tax to pay judgment recovered on such bonds against township. Graham v. Folsom, 200 U. S. 248, 252, 50 L. Ed. 464.

Civ. '12, § 469; Civ. '02, § 421; R. S. 347; 1887, XIX, 862.

Koth v. Pallachucola Club, 79 S. C. 514, 517, 61 S. E. 77.

Failure of execution to specify amount of taxes to each fund does not invalidate sale. Dickson v. Burckmyer, 67 S. C. 526, 540, 46 S. E. 343.

It matters not whether Sheriff attaches to tax sale deed under this section the original or duplicate execution, and such execution is valid, although the mandate does not contain the name of defaulting payer and amount of taxes. Dickson v. Burckmyer, 67 S. C. 526, 539, 46 S. E. 343.

Execution should specify whether for capitation or property tax. State v. Graham, 2 Hill 457. Need not specify subject of taxation. State v. City Council, 4 Rich. 286. Execution for taxes, in part illegal, not specifying amount illegal, is altogether void. State v. Hodges, 14 Rich. 256. Personal property must under certain statutes be exhausted before land can be sold. Ebaugh v. Mullinax, 34 S. C. 364, 16 S. E. 613; Curtis v. Renneker, 34 S. C. 468, 13 S. E. 664. But under late tax Acts the failure to exhaust the personally does not necessarily defeat the title of the purchaser to the land. Interstate B. & L. Ass'n v. Waters, 50 S. C. 459, 27 S. E. 948.

Gallishaw v. Jackson, 99 S. C. 342, 83 S. E. 454.

(521) § 2. Fees and Charges.—The Treasurer for every such warrant issued shall have from such defaulter $1.00; and the Sheriff shall take from such defaulter the following fees in the execution of his office, to wit: For serving each warrant, $1.00, besides mileage at the rate of 5 cents for each mile actually traveled in executing the warrant; for advertising sale, 25 cents; for making sale and executing deed of conveyance, and putting purchaser in possession, $3.00; and for all sums levied as aforesaid, five per cent., and the Sheriff is prohibited from demanding or collecting any greater sum therefor than is hereby allowed; and neither the Sheriff nor County Treasurer shall receive fees upon nulla bona returns.

Civ. '12, § 470; Civ. '02, § 422; R. S. 348; 1887, XIX, 862; 1888, XX, 51; 1889, XX, 346.

The Sheriff is not entitled to retain the 5 per cent. commissions paid under protest to release property from an illegal levy. Cleveland v. McCravy, 46 S. C. 252, 24 S. E. 175.

(522) § 3. Seizure, Advertisement and Sale Under Execution for Delinquent Taxes—Redemption—Execution of Title.—Under and by virtue of said warrant or execution, the Sheriff shall seize and take exclusive possession of so much of the defaulting taxpayer's estate, real or personal, or both, as may be necessary to raise the sum of money named therein, and said charges thereon; and, after due advertisement, sell the same before the court house door in the county, on a regular sales day, and within the usual hours for public sales, for cash, give to the purchaser (upon his complying with the terms of sale) a receipt for the purchase money, but not make title to the purchaser until the expiration of six months from the day of sale, if the property sold be not redeemed as hereinafter provided, and annex said receipt to the duplicate warrant with the endorsement thereon of his action thereunder, and shall, after deducting from proceeds of sale the costs and expenses of said sale, pay over to the County Treasurer the taxes, charges and penalties due and incurred by said defaulting taxpayer; and upon written notice given, or information ascertained from the records, of any mortgage or other lien on said premises so sold for taxes, shall hold the excess, if any, until authorized or directed by proper judicial authority as to mode of disposition, or by the written consent of the defaulting taxpayer that the said excess be paid over to the mortgage or lien creditor, and according to priority if more than one: Provided, That the owner or grantee or any mortgage creditor may within six months from the day of such sale redeem such property by paying to the Sheriff the taxes, penalties, costs and expenses of said sale, together with eight per cent. interest on the whole amount of the purchase price of said land so sold, and thereupon the Sheriff shall pay back and refund to the said purchaser the amount paid on his bid, with interest as above stated, and the bid by said purchaser shall be then cancelled and revoked, the owner or grantee remaining in possession of his said land: Provided, further, That should any mortgagee redeem said land as above permitted, then the amount so paid by him for taxes, charges, costs and penalties shall be added to the mortgage debt or other lien, with same incidents as to priority and with same rate of interest and collectible in the same way as the original mortgage debt. Upon failure of defaulting taxpayer or other party interested to redeem said land so sold for taxes within six months as stated, then the Sheriff shall make title to the purchaser and put the purchaser in possession of the property sold and conveyed: Provided, further, That in case of threatened waste or damage to the premises by the owner or any other party, during the six months allowed for redemption, the purchaser at said tax sale shall have the right to apply to the Court of Common Pleas or a Judge thereof for injunction against such waste and for a receiver to take charge of the property until the end of the six months for redemption unless sooner redeemed: Provided, further, That in any case where the Sheriff of any county shall have made a deed under the Act approved the 20th day of February, 1901, and said land has been or shall be redeemed under the provisions of said Act, it shall be the duty of the Sheriff, upon demand of the owner of said land, to execute to said owner a deed of the land so redeemed, citing the proceedings under which said land was sold, and upon said deed being executed and delivered, the title to said land shall revert in the owner as though said tax sale had never been made: Provided, further, When any real estate is sold for taxes in any county it shall be the duty of the Sheriff, before delivering title to such real estate to the purchaser at such sale, to give not less than thirty days' notice to any mortgagee or assignee of any mortgage appearing of record as interested in such real estate of such sale in order that such mortgagee or assignee may have opportunity to redeem the said real estate, as now provided by law for the owner thereof. Such notice shall either be served on such mortgagee or assignee in person or forwarded to his last known postoffice address by registered mail, or when his whereabouts may be unknown it may be had by publication upon petition and order as is required for service of summons by publication in civil actions.

But inchoate right of dower remains. Ib. Defaulting taxpayer can, by ordinary action, recover surplus proceeds from Sheriff. State v. Turner, 32 S. C. 348, 11 S. E. 99.

Mandamus will issue to compel execution of deed by the Sheriff on purchaser's complying with bid. State ex rel. Harley v. Lancaster, 46 S. C. 282, 24 S. E. 198. Or to compel delivery of possession. State ex rel. Gibbs v. Morrison, 44 S. C. 470, 22 S. E. 605. Rule against Sheriff not the remedy. Gibbes v. Morrison, 39 S. C. 360, 17 S. E. 803. Sale of entire tract held not an excessive levy. Wilson v. Cantrell, 40 S. C. 114, 18 S. E. 517.

Sheriff must "seize and take exclusive possession" of the property. Sale must be for cash. Purchaser may assign bid, attaching execution to deed. Excessive levy; discretion of Sheriff. Dickson v. Burckmyer, 67 S. C. 526, 46 S. E. 343. Levy by officer not legally appointed and qualified, illegal. Barrineu v. Stevens, 75 S. C. 252, 55 S. E. 309.

Where land has been levied on and sold for taxes as lands of heirs of A. without mentioning names of each of heirs, tax title is prima facie good to convey interest of heirs of A. in land after his death. Here view strengthened by fact that after decease of A. some of his heirs returned property for benefit of all, paid taxes for a while and then voluntarily stopped paying. Koth v. Pallachucola Club, 79 S. C. 514, 517, 61 S. E. 77.

That Sheriff made excessive levy for taxes, unless so excessive as to indicate oppression from design or ignorance, should not disturb title of purchaser in good faith, but such issue is for jury, and fact that land sold for ten times as much as taxes, is not conclusive of question. Dickson v. Burckmyer, 67 S. C. 526, 539, 46 S. E. 343.

(523) § 4. Purchase by Auditor for Sinking Fund Commission.—How Titles to Be Made, Etc.—In case there be no bid equal in amount to the taxes named in said warrant or execution, the County Auditor shall buy the land for the Sinking Fund Commission, as the actual purchaser thereof, for the amount of said taxes and penalties, costs and charges; and the Sheriff shall thereupon execute titles to said Sinking Fund Commission, as to any other purchaser, and in the manner above provided, and shall put them or their authorized agent in possession of the premises. The land so sold and purchased and delivered to said Commission shall be treated by them as assets of the State in their charge, and be sold at such times and in such manner as by them shall be deemed most advantageous to the State.

Mere fact that, under this section, Sheriff, in order to collect a tax of $1,200, alleged to be due from a railroad receiver, has distrained property worth $10,000, much of which belongs to third persons, is sufficient to require interference by injunction of court which appointed receiver, regardless of any question as to validity of tax. Ex parte Chamberlain, 55 Fed. 704, 705.

Levy and sale of land worth about $2,500 for taxes and cost amounting to about $31, such tract of land being easily divided, is illegal, purchaser taking nothing. Commercial Bank v. Sanford, 99 Fed. 154, 156.

(524) § 5. Sale of Use and Occupancy of Land by Municipality for Taxes.—Whenever any taxes, State, county, school or township, hereafter may accrue upon any land or buildings, or portions thereof, or upon any other property of any municipal corporation by reason of said land, buildings or other property, or portions thereof, not having been used “exclusively for public purposes and not for revenue,” and hereafter may become past due and unpaid, and it becomes necessary to collect the same by distress, then the Sheriff, whether acting under an execution from the County Treasurer or from the Secretary of State as agent of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, shall, at public sale, sell not the “fee,” as in other cases, but only the “use” and “occupancy” of such portions of said land, building or property of such municipal corporation as the same accrued upon, to that bidder who will for the shortest term pay the taxes, penalties, costs and charges accrued thereon; and at such sale to protect the interest of the State, if there be no cash bid equal to the taxes, penalties, costs and charges accrued thereon, then the said property, or portion thereof offered for sale, shall be knocked down to the Sinking Fund Commission for a term not exceeding ninety-nine years; and it shall be the duty of the Sheriff to make titles for the term of years required by the bid to the purchaser, and put said purchaser (whether the Sinking Fund Commission or any other person) into possession in like manner as when the fee is by him sold for taxes.

USE FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES NOT TO DEFEAT THE SALE.—The use and occupancy for public purposes at the time of levy or sale of any portion of property levied upon or sold for taxes accrued by reason of same not having been formerly used “exclusively for public purposes and not for revenue” shall not defeat the remedy for collection provided in this Section.

(525) § 6. Sheriff's Deed Prima Facie Evidence of Good Title—Limitation of Action.—In all cases of sale the Sheriff's deed of conveyance, whether executed to a private person, a corporation or the Sinking Fund Commission, shall be held and taken as prima facie evidence of a good title in the holder, and that all proceedings have been regular, and all requirements of the law have been duly complied with. No action for the recovery of land sold by the Sheriff under the provisions of this Article, or for the recovery of the possession thereof, shall be maintained unless brought within two years from the date of said sale.

Complaint stating cause of action for recovery of land does not state facts, defeating recovery, by alleging that defendant claims under tax deed based on sale for taxes procured by him by alleged facts, which if true would make deed null and void for fraud, or estop defendant from asserting deed. Jones v. Boykin, 70 S. C. 309, 49 S. E. 877.

(526) § 7. Suspension of Sale—When and on What Grounds—Evidence—Waiver.—In case the taxpayer alleged to be in default after levy of distress as aforesaid shall allege that the taxes have been paid, or are unjustly assessed against him, he can and may have the sale suspended, if before the sale he offers satisfactory evidence to the Sheriff that said taxes have been paid or improperly assessed against him, and within twenty days thereafter take such steps as are provided by law for correction of unjust assessment, or to prove payment, and prosecute the same to a successful result within a reasonable time. And in case such taxpayer offers no such proof, or fails to take the course herein provided, he shall be deemed in law to have waived all exceptions to the omission, errors and irregularities (if any there be) in the assessment of said tax, and in all preliminaries to said sale as prescribed by law, and to have admitted that each and all preliminary steps to said assessment and sale, and said assessment and sale were in accordance with the requirements of law.

(527) § 8. Duties of Sheriffs as to Tax Executions—Subject to Control of Comptroller General.—The Sheriffs in the several counties in the State, in making levies and sales, in making returns, and in paying over money collected under tax warrants and executions placed in their hands by County Treasurers, shall be subject to the direction and under the control of the Comptroller General of the State, as they are now in like manner to plaintiffs in execution; and the Comptroller General is hereby invested with all the rights and privileges of a plaintiff in execution, to invoke and obtain the aid of the court to compel refractory Sheriffs to discharge their duties in the enforcement of tax executions; and it is hereby made the duty of the said Sheriffs, respectively, to make return of all tax executions to the Treasurer of their respective counties within ninety days after the date of issue thereof, designating such as may be nulla bona and such as may have been collected by distress or otherwise, and within the same time to pay over to the said Treasurer all taxes and penalties collected by them; and the several County Treasurers shall, at the last term of the Circuit Court in each year for their respective counties, deliver to the foreman of the grand jury a complete list of all tax executions delivered to the Sheriff for collection, and which have not been collected, and the grand jury shall examine the said list, and present the Sheriff for any default or neglect in the performance of his duties relative to the enforcement of such executions. And in case any Sheriff shall make default in paying over within the time aforesaid any moneys collected on said executions, it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer, and he is hereby required, immediately to bring suit against such defaulting Sheriff in any court of competent jurisdiction, in which suit such Sheriff shall be liable to treble the amount for which he has defaulted; and in case of any loss resulting by reason of the failure of the County Treasurer to perform the duties herein set forth, such Treasurer shall be liable therefor.

(528) § 9. Duplicate Tax Executions—How Issued.—When it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the presiding Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for any county in this State, by petition or upon due notice to the County Commissioners, that any tax execution heretofore issued, or which may hereafter be issued, by the County Treasurer of county, has been lost, and that the amount due thereon has not been collected, either in whole or in part, to issue an order, directed to the Treasurer of said county, ordering and directing him to issue an alias or duplicate execution in the place and stead of the one which has been lost; and upon the receipt of said order, it shall be the duty of said County Treasurer to immediately issue an alias or duplicate tax execution as directed in said order.

Said duplicate or alias executions shall, by said County Treasurer, be marked “duplicate” or “alias” execution, and when so issued and marked, shall have the same force and effect as the original execution could or would have, if the same had not been lost.

Should the party to be served with notice be a nonresident, then said notice shall be served by publication of said notice in some newspaper, and mailing a copy thereof to said party, as prescribed for service of nonresidents by the Code of Civil Procedure of this State, and said taxes shall be assessed and collected as provided in the Section above referred to.

No court in this State shall lend its aid in the enforcement of such contract whether the same has heretofore been entered into or may hereafter be entered into. The courts of this State shall not lend their aid to enforce any contract entered into as a substitute for or having as its consideration a previous contract of the nature or class of contracts hereinbefore declared against public policy.

ARTICLE V.

Annual Settlements of County Treasurers.

(531) § 1. Settlement of Auditor With Treasurer—When and How Made.—Each County Auditor shall attend at his office on or before the first day of May, annually, or at any other time the Comptroller General may direct, to make settlement with the Treasurer of his county and ascertain the amount of taxes, penalties and assessments collected by such Treasurer and the amount with which he is to stand charged on account thereof and on account of each fund for which a levy was made on the duplicate. The Auditor shall take from the duplicate previously put into the hands of the Treasurer for collection, a list of all such taxes, assessments and penalties as such Treasurer has been unable to collect, describing the property as described on the duplicate, and shall note thereon in a marginal column the several reasons assigned by the Treasurer why such taxes or other charges could not be collected, which list shall be denominated the delinquent list, and shall be signed and sworn to by the Treasurer, before said Auditor, who shall record the same in a book to be provided for the purpose and transmit an abstract thereof to the Comptroller General; and in making such list, the delinquencies in each district, city, village and town shall be stated separately. And after deducting the amount of taxes, assessments and penalties so returned delinquent, the Treasurer shall stand charged with the remainder of the taxes, assessments and penalties charged on the duplicate: Provided, however, That only the following causes shall be assigned by the Treasurer on said delinquent list for not collecting any tax, penalty or assessment, to wit:

1. Sheriff's return to execution issued, that no sufficient property of the party charged therewith could be found, out of which to make the same.
2. That property was found, but, for want of bidders, was sold and conveyed to the Sinking Fund Commission by the Sheriff, pursuant to law.
3. Execution issued and in the hands of the Sheriff.

4. That such taxes, assessments and penalties were enjoined by a competent court.

(532) § 2. Treasurer's Remedy When Charged With Tax Not in Fact Paid.—If, in making such settlement, the Treasurer shall stand charged with any tax, assessment or penalty, which in fact was not paid prior thereto, he may at any time while remaining in office collect the same by distress and sale of property, as in other cases of delinquent taxes, or by action in his own name, as for money paid for the use of the party or parties charged with or bound to pay said tax, penalty or assessment, and after going out of office he may maintain an action in his own name, as aforesaid, for the collection of such tax, penalty or assessment.

(533) § 3. County Supervisors and Superintendents of Education Notified of Day of Settlement—Proceedings.—When the County Treasurers of the several counties shall have disbursed all the county and school funds of each fiscal year, and are ready to make their settlements with their respective County Auditors for the county and school taxes charged against them upon the Treasurer's tax duplicate, they shall so notify the County Auditors, whereupon the County Auditors shall notify the County Supervisors and County Superintendents of Education of their respective counties of the day of such settlement; and the said County Supervisors and County Superintendents of Education are hereby required to produce, in the office of the Auditor of their respective counties, the claims allowed and ordered paid by them, and vouch thereby each amount presented by the County Treasurer for a credit in his settlement with the Auditor for the amount of county and school taxes which are charged against him on the Treasurer's duplicate for each year. The County Auditors and Treasurers shall annually have a full and final settlement as to tax executions issued by said Treasurers within twelve months after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the payment of taxes in any year.

(534) § 4. Auditor to Notify Foreman of Grand Jury and Comptroller to Attend to Witness Settlement.—It shall be the duty of the Auditor of each county to notify the foreman of the grand jury thereof and the Comptroller General of the day upon which said settlement is to be made, and the Comptroller General, or some one duly authorized by him, and the foreman of the grand jury of each county are hereby required to be present and witness said settlement.

The Commissioners of Election of such county shall receive the returns of the Managers and tabulate the vote and declare the result. Upon the filing of said petition the same procedure shall be had as in the formation of new counties as provided in Sections 52, 54, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61 and 62 of this Chapter: Provided, When there is no established polling place or voting places in the area proposed to be cut off, whether for a new county or for annexation to adjoining county, the petitioners shall name a voting place or places in their petition, and in such case the Governor shall in his order of election designate the place or places named in the petition as the voting place or places and Managers of Election shall be appointed therefor, and all electors otherwise qualified shall be allowed to vote at such voting place named in said order as is most convenient as legally as if their registration certificates called for that place by name.

ELECTIONS ON CHANGE OF COUNTY LINES.—Upon the defeat of any proposed change of the boundary line of a county at any election thereon, no election upon the same or any modified change of such boundary line shall be held within four years thereafter.
